

H2H Network Tigray Service Package

Supporting multilateral processes with needs assessments and on-demand analytical products in Tigray, Ethiopia

The escalation of the conflict between the Ethiopian National Defense Force and troops allied with the Tigray People's Liberation Front in the Tigray region of Ethiopia has left at least 950,000 people in urgent need of humanitarian assistance. The H2H Network has activated its fund to support the humanitarian system in Ethiopia and in neighbouring Sudan with technical services, products and tools.

Who	What and where	Contact
CDAC Network	Provide a Senior National Community Engagement and Accountability Coordinator as surge support to the humanitarian response for refugees in Sudan.	FanMan Tsang fanman.tsang@cdacnetwork.org
iMMAP	Provide on-demand analytical products and needs assessment through a methodology based on both secondary and remote primary data collection where information gaps are identified. Provide information management services to organizations conducting assessments in Tigray (support for data collection, data management and visualization). The services are freely available for humanitarian responders active in Tigray (OCHA, clusters, local, national and international NGOs).	Elisa Alghisi ealghisi@immap.org Sarah Simon ssimon@immap.org Guido Pizzini gpizzini@immap.org
Translators Without Borders (TWB)	Conduct a rapid assessment to identify language barriers and needs to inform the refugee response in Sudan; Support partners' assessments on language and communication preferences in the affected region to inform multilateral processes across the response. Support Complaints and Feedback Mechanisms; Provide language training and guidance on data collection and accountability for staff to help improve referral and registration processes; Develop a glossary of key terms in relevant languages to support communication with affected people on both sides of the border.	Tess Elias tess@translatorswithoutborders.org Alyssa Boulares alyssa@translatorswithoutborders.org
ACAPS	Support analysis of humanitarian needs resulting from the conflict in Northern Ethiopia.	Helene Lafferty Smith, Senior Analyst hls@acaps.org

For other H2H Network service requests, contact info@h2hnetwork.org